We are always appreciative of having matters drawn to our attention such as the letter that you forwarded to us. I have instructed Mr. Walter Pforzheimer, our Legislative Counsel, to get from you the name and address of the author of your enclosure which you have kindly offered to make available to us.

I would be grateful, in any correspondence you may have with [redacted] on this matter, if you would simply indicate that you have turned the letter over to the appropriate authorities and not mention CIA by name.

Sincerely,

SIGNED
